www.SixQuestionsForAnyBibleStudy.com

Use this guide when studying an entire book of the Bible.

CHECK-IN: 1) Warmly welcome everyone. 2) You answer the check-in questions first. 3) Then go around the circle. 4) Thank people as they share.

1. What is your first name?
2. What is a personal "headline" from your week?
3. What personal goal did you write down last time, and how did it go?

This week's Bible story is _____. As we get started, I'll have prayer, and then we need two volunteers to read our story in two different translations. Who would volunteer? After the story, I'll prompt us as we try to retell the story together from memory, with as many details as possible. But let's pray before we read.

✂ ——

6 Questions: Cut on the dotted line and distribute around the circle. Ask, "Who has Question One?"

1. What do you think this story reveals about us and our human tendencies?
   ✂ ————————————
2. What do you see this story teaching us about God and how His Kingdom works?
   ✂ ————————————
3. Everyone will need a pen and a notepad or a 3x5 index card. Let's take 3 minutes to quietly think and write down our answers to this question. [Have extra notepads and cards for people.]

   From this story, what is an example to follow or a command to obey this next week?
   - I'll start the timer. We have 3 minutes to think and write.
   - Time is up. I'll go first and share what I wrote today.
   - Then, we'll go clockwise around the circle.

   ✂ ————————————
4. Who did you reach out to last week? Or who could you reach out to about this next week?
   ✂ ————————————
5. What parts of the Bible did you read last week? Or what part would you like to start this next week?
   ✂ ————————————
6. As we wrap up, how can we pray for people?