Relational Bible Studies

The WORD Among Us

The Simply Series is a different kind of Bible study. It is not doctrine or life application. It is relational, which means there are no right or wrong answers to the questions in this facilitator's guide.

Relational Bible studies focus on building relationships with God and each other. They create a space for the WORD among us to wash over us, plant seeds in our lives, and change us by the transforming grace of the Holy Spirit.

Relational Bible studies give everyone, no matter what their perspective or depth of Bible knowledge, space to share and contribute to the dialogue as we journey together. They help us discover how our personal story intersects with the Bible story.

These guides are designed to facilitate real and authentic dialogue in such a way that secular and unchurched Truth seekers come away saying, "This is different! This is real."

People need the Everlasting Gospel. Simple Church is about creating a space for Truth seekers to journey together.

May God bless you as you simplify and re-prioritize your life, creating time to "spend" with Truth seekers from all walks of life.

How to Use This Leader's Guide

This leader's guide assumes you have:

1. Read through the www.SimpleChurchAtHome.com web page.
2. Completed the online Simple Church training.

Title

outline

Bible story reference will be listed here.

Message of Hope: Have this idea crystal clear in your mind. This is what you want people to remember for the rest of the week.

Helpful Tip: These tips show up here and there.

The Basic 8: These are covered in the free online training.

1. Collection Box (explained in PhaseONE training videos)
2. Connection Card Envelopes
3. Business Cards
4. Taco Salad Sign-up Sheet
5. a variety of extra Bible translations.
6. Child Safety Poster
7. Blessing Board
8. Email link to online Simple Church Weekly Summary Form (When officially launched this is emailed to your Details Coordinator every Sunday.)

Welcome: We are glad everyone is here. We focus on three things: connecting with God, connecting with each other, and serving our world. In other words, this group does not exist for us.

Before we introduce ourselves, let's Remember:

- This is a safe place to grow spiritually.
- We are a wide diversity of Truth seekers. We are glad all of you are here.
- You will notice we do not use a bunch of fancy religious language.
- We do not try to impress people with how much Bible quoting we can do. We are common people.
- Please be sensitive so everyone has an opportunity to share and contribute.
- Cell phones should be put on "vibrate," or turned off.

Check-In:

1. What is your first name?
2. What is a high-light or a low-light (a headline) from your week?
3. [Insert rotation question for the week.]

Visit www.SimpleChurchAtHome.com for more study guides.

Rotation Questions: Rotate through the following three questions:

Week 1: How would you like to simplify your life?

Week 2: How would you like to re-prioritize your life?

Week 3: How would you like to cultivate a deeper relationship with God.

Week 4: How would you like to simplify your life?

Week 5: etc.

At the end of check-in ask the person who facilitated to choose another adult to facilitate check-in next week. Anyone can facilitate check-in. It does not have to be a CORE leader.

Children's Check-In Questions: How did you help Mommy or Daddy this week? (Or they can answer the adult questions.)

The Quiz: A child asks three questions. They randomly choose from the check-in questions people just answered. Ask everyone to raise their hands and the child picks someone to answer the questions.

For example:

1. What was his (pointing to the person) high-light for the week?
2. What was her name (pointing to the person)?
3. How did she want to simplify her life?

At the end of the quiz ask the child who facilitated to choose another child to facilitate the quiz next week.

This is what page 2 of a typical leader's guide for a given week actually looks like.

Facilitator's Directions:

1. Talk as little as possible, encourage others to share, and avoid a monologue.
2. Cut on the dotted lines. Distribute questions around the circle. (✂-----)
3. Keep this top part and the bottom part (question D) of this page.
4. Reassure people they do not have to answer the questions, just read it for us.
5. At the end, choose someone to facilitate the questions for next week.

Kick-off Question: (60 second answers, facilitator goes first)

Bridge: This transitions the group from the Kick-off Question into the Bible story.

Read the Bible Story from two different translations: Bible story reference will be listed here. (Encourage people to stick to this story instead of jumping all over the Bible during our discussion.)

Digging Questions: (50% of your study time)

Some helpful pointers for digging questions:

- Remember: there are no "right answers" to relational Bible study questions. Help people contribute their perspective to the dialogue.

- You DO NOT have to "accomplish" all the questions listed. Use them as a resource from which to select during your discussion.
- Spend a maximum of 50% of your Bible study time on these questions.
- Affirm each answer, no matter what is said, by saying something like, "Excellent, someone else"; "Thanks for sharing, someone else"; "Good, someone else"; "How about the rest of you, what do you think".
- Did you catch the common denominator, "someone else"? You are always affirming and always inviting others to give input.
- If someone gets off-focus, simply say (after they have stopped talking), "What was the question? Let's read it again."

Sharing Questions: (50% of your study time)

Some helpful pointers:

- Spend a minimum of 50% of your time on these questions.
- These questions are designed to invite people to share portions of their life story as it interacts with the Bible study.
- At appropriate times affirm confidentiality and offer reassurance that this is a safe place to share and grow spiritually.

Group Prayer:

1. We are blessed by being a part of this group, yet it exists for those who are not yet here.
2. Put an Empty Chair in the middle of your prayer circle. Pray for the people who are not yet here.
3. Close by saying the Blessing Board blessing together.

At the end of prayer, ask the person who facilitated to choose another adult to facilitate the questions for next week. Anyone can facilitate the questions. It does not have to be a CORE leader.

Lunch:

1. Keep it simple. Keep it easily reproducible.
2. Hostess (one of the CORE4) provides the beans.
3. During lunch have the Taco Salad Sign-up Sheet available.

Meaninglessness

outline

Ecclesiastes 1:1-11

Message of Hope: Meaninglessness can turn into meaningfulness.

Leader's Tip: Most people do not need to be told that life on this earth is rather grim. But people need hope. Ecclesiastes begins with a lot of disparity. It might be tempting to try to make this story a "be happy" story. Avoid this temptation. Later Ecclesiastes will teach us the secret to finding meaning in a meaningless world.

The Basic 8 Simple Church Tools: Collection Box, Connection Card Envelopes, Business Cards, Taco Salad Sign-up sheet, a variety of extra Bible translations, Child Safety Poster, Blessing Board, Summary Form (which is emailed to the Details Coordinator every Sunday).

Breakfast

Welcome: We are so glad that you are here today.

Setting the Context:

- We come from a variety of backgrounds and seek to create a safe place for Truth seekers to grow spiritually.
- You will notice that we try to avoid fancy religious language. We are common people.
- Let's encourage those who like to talk to give opportunity for everyone to participate.

Check-In:

1. What is your first name?
2. What is a high-light or a low-light (a headline) from your week?
3. [Insert rotation question for the week.]

At the end of check-in ask the person who facilitated to choose another adult to facilitate check-in next week. Anyone can facilitate check-in. It does not have to be a CORE leader.

Children's Check-In Questions: How did you help Mommy or Daddy this week? (Or they can answer the adult questions.)

The Quiz: A child asks three questions. They randomly choose from the check-in questions people just answered. Ask everyone to raise their hands and the child picks someone to answer the questions.

At the end of the quiz ask the child who facilitated to choose another child to facilitate the quiz next week.

Facilitator's Directions:

1. Talk as little as possible, encourage others to share, and avoid a monologue.
2. Cut on the dotted lines. Distribute questions around the circle. (✂-----)
3. Keep this top part and the bottom part (question D) of this page.
4. Reassure people they do not have to answer the questions, just read it for us.
5. At the end, choose someone to facilitate the questions for next week.

Kick-off Question: (60 second answers, facilitator goes first, go around the circle)

What is one of the most meaningful things that has happened to you?

Bridge: Everyone is looking for hope and meaning in life. Today we start a new study in the Old Testament book of the Bible called Ecclesiastes where the word meaningless is used about thirty times. As we read today's story, you might conclude that this study is going to be a waste of time. But hold on and stay plugged in. If you are looking for the real secrets of life that will give you hope and meaning, then you will not be disappointed. So, let's get started.

Read the Bible Story from a modern translation: Ecclesiastes 1:1-11

(Encourage people to stick to this story instead of jumping all over the Bible.)

Digging Questions: (50% of your study time)

1. Having only read the first 11 verses, one might think that this king, Solomon, has a real attitude problem. If everything in life is so meaningless, why do you think he takes the time and effort to write this book of Ecclesiastes?
✂-----
2. How do you think Solomon would answer his own question in verse 3?
✂-----
3. Why, in verse 8, do you think Solomon has decided that people are never satisfied or content?
✂-----
4. It seems in verse 10 that Solomon thinks that something has to be “new” for it to have meaning. Why do you think he makes this statement?

Sharing Questions: (50% of your study time)

- A) On a personal note, how do you find meaning in the mundane?
✂-----
- B) On a scale of 1 to 10, with 1 being “meaningless” and 10 being “meaningful,” where would you score your current life experience? What would it take for you to move your score up a notch?
✂-----
- C) What is an invitation, a promise, a command, or a warning that you needed to hear today?
✂-----
- D) Remember: Meaninglessness can turn into meaningfulness. How can this group pray for you this next week?

Group Prayer:

- Put Empty Chairs in the middle of your circle. Pray for people who will be invited.
- Close by saying the Blessing Board blessing together.

Lunch: Taco Salad sign-up sheet

Chasing the Wind

outline

Ecclesiastes 1:12-18

The Basic 8: Collection Box, Connection Card Envelopes, Post card invitation cards, Taco Salad Sign-up sheet, a variety of extra Bible translations, Child Safety Poster, Blessing Board, Summary Form (which is emailed to the Details Coordinator every Sunday).

4. Reassure people they do not have to answer the questions, just read it for us.
5. At the end, choose someone to facilitate the questions for next week.

Kick-off Question: (60 second answers, facilitator goes first, go around the circle)

In what subjects did you (or do you) get the best grades?

Bridge: It has been said, “If you wanted someone who knew everything, you should have hired me right out of eighth grade.” Today's story is about someone who was wise and possessed knowledge, but as you will see, his life was full of grief and sorrow. Why do wisdom and grief often go together? Open your Bible, and let's continue to explore where life's meaning comes from.

Read the Bible Story from a modern translation: Ecclesiastes 1:12-18

(Encourage people to stick to this story instead of jumping all over the Bible.)

Digging Questions: (50% of your study time)

1. Why do you think Solomon concludes that gaining knowledge is like “chasing the wind”?
✂-----
2. Knowledge comes in all shapes and sizes: spiritual, biblical, philosophical, legal, medical, etc.... What advice do you see Solomon having for someone whose personal identity and self-worth is based on how much knowledge he possesses?
3. In verse 18, how do you think greater wisdom and knowledge increase a person's sorrow?
✂-----
4. When does too much wisdom and knowledge cross the line and become “chasing the wind”?
✂-----

Sharing Questions: (50% of your study time)

- A) On a personal note, where have you searched for meaning in life?
✂-----
- B) With what kinds of grief and sorrow do you live with as a result of your wisdom and knowledge?
✂-----
- C) What is an invitation, a promise, a command, or a warning that you needed to hear today?
✂-----
- D) Remember: Great wisdom brings grief, so be willing to look somewhere else for life's meaning. How can this group pray for you this next week?

Group Prayer:

- Put Empty Chairs in the middle of your circle. Pray for people who will be invited.

- Close by saying the Blessing Board blessing together.

Midlife Crisis

outline

Ecclesiastes 2:1-11

Message of Hope: Pleasure and wisdom are meaningless, so be willing to look somewhere else for meaning in life.

The Basic 8: Collection Box, Connection Card Envelopes, Post card invitation cards, Taco Salad Sign-up sheet, a variety of extra Bible translations, Child Safety Poster, Blessing Board, Summary Form (which is emailed to the Details Coordinator every Sunday).

When growing up, what was modeled or communicated to you as giving a person value and worth in life?

Bridge: You may be tempted to think that the author of today's story, King Solomon, is in a mid-life crisis. But you will notice that Solomon is systematically trying to destroy all the common areas that people search for meaning in life. The bottom line is that people would not be willing to listen to his conclusion if they thought there was still hope of finding meaning in all the popular places. So hang in there; starting next week he will begin to give us clues as to where true meaning can be found. Let's open our Bible and read . . . .

Read the Bible Story from a modern translation: Ecclesiastes 2:1-11

(Encourage people to stick to this story instead of jumping all over the Bible.)

✂-----

Digging Questions: (50% of your study time)

1. What different forms of pleasure, good or bad, do you think people use today to try to find meaning in life?
✂-----
2. In verse 10, why do you think hard work ends up on the “meaningless” list?
✂-----
3. How would you describe the differences between wisdom and foolishness?
✂-----
4. Why do you think Solomon is so unhappy with what most people would consider great success?
✂-----

Sharing Questions: (50% of your study time)

- A) On a personal note, what are some of the different accomplishments you have pursued in life to find meaning?
✂-----
- B) What some areas in life where you feel like you are chasing the wind?
✂-----
- C) What is an invitation, a promise, a command, or a warning that you needed to hear today?
✂-----
- D) Remember: Pleasure and wisdom are meaningless, so be willing to look somewhere else for meaning in life. How can this group pray for you this next week?

What was the last thing you complained about?

Bridge: Today's story gets right to the point when it comes to complaining. Let's face it, all of us have hard times. The questions to ask are, "On what will we focus? What legacy will we leave in this life?" So ready or not, let's read the story.

Breakfast

Welcome: We are so glad that you are here today.

Setting the Context:

- We come from a variety of backgrounds and seek to create a safe place for Truth seekers to grow spiritually.
- You will notice that we try to avoid fancy religious language. We are common people.
- Let's encourage those who like to talk to give opportunity for everyone to participate.

Check-In:

1. What is your first name?
2. What is a high-light or a low-light (a headline) from your week?

At the end of check-in ask the person who facilitated to choose another adult to facilitate check-in next week. Anyone can facilitate check-in. It does not have to be a CORE leader.

Children's Check-In Questions: How did you help Mommy or Daddy this week? (Or they can answer the adult questions.)

The Quiz: A child asks three questions. They randomly choose from the check-in questions people just answered. Ask everyone to raise their hands and the child picks someone to answer the questions.

1. Talk as little as possible, encourage others to share, and avoid a monologue.
2. Cut on the dotted lines. Distribute questions around the circle. ✂-----
3. Keep this top part and the bottom part (question D) of this page.
4. Reassure people they do not have to answer the questions, just read it for us.

When was a time in your life that a friend was there for you during a difficult time?

Bridge: You may have heard the saying, “There is a friend that sticks closer than a brother.” Today's story shares one of the secrets to living a meaningful life. But this secret requires risk-taking. Let's read.

On a scale of one to ten, with one being a quiet person who does not like to talk much, and ten being a person who is the life of the party and likes to talk a lot, where would you place yourself?

Bridge: Words are powerful. People use, or do not use, words in a number of ways: for control, manipulation, persuasion, love, kindness, and to bless others. Today's story is quite sobering because, as we will see in a few minutes, God takes our words very seriously.

Dream a bit—if all goes well, what will happen in your life over the next twelve months?

Bridge: Today's story is rather gloomy. So, we are going to shift gears for a few moments and talk about the gloomy parts of life. Everybody faces good and bad times in life—that is just the way life is. But no matter what we face in life, we must decide how we will respond. This is hard, as you will see in this story. Even Solomon had a hard time practicing his own advice. But it is still good advice. So, let's get started.

1. After reading verses 2 and 3, why do you think anyone would pursue a spiritual life?
2. Verse 11 sounds like there is no value in being fast, strong, wise, skillful, or educated. How do you make sense of this observation?
✂-----
3. How do you see “chance” (the last part of verse 11 and verse 12) and “being in God's hand” (verse 1) coexisting in this same story?
✂-----
4. Let's reread verses 5 and 10 from the different translations in our circle. If this is true, why do you think popular Christianity seems to say the exact opposite?

Ecclesiastes 9:13-10:4

Message of Hope: Quiet wisdom will serve you well in life.

The Basic 8: Collection Box, Connection Card Envelopes, Post card invitation cards, Taco Salad Sign-up sheet, a variety of extra Bible translations, Child Safety Poster, Blessing Board, Summary Form (which is emailed to the Details Coordinator every Sunday).

Breakfast

Welcome: We are so glad that you are here today.

Setting the Context:

- We come from a variety of backgrounds and seek to create a safe place for Truth seekers to grow spiritually.
- You will notice that we try to avoid fancy religious language. We are common people.
- Let's encourage those who like to talk to give opportunity for everyone to participate.

Check-In:

1. What is your first name?
2. What is a high-light or a low-light (a headline) from your week?
3. [Insert rotation question for the week.]

At the end of check-in ask the person who facilitated to choose another adult to facilitate check-in next week. Anyone can facilitate check-in. It does not have to be a CORE leader.

Children's Check-In Questions: How did you help Mommy or Daddy this week? (Or they can answer the adult questions.)

The Quiz: A child asks three questions. They randomly choose from the check-in questions people just answered. Ask everyone to raise their hands and the child picks someone to answer the questions.

At the end of the quiz ask the child who facilitated to choose another child to facilitate the quiz next week.

Facilitator's Directions:

1. Talk as little as possible, encourage others to share, and avoid a monologue.
2. Cut on the dotted lines. Distribute questions around the circle. ✂-----
3. Keep this top part and the bottom part (question D) of this page.
4. Reassure people they do not have to answer the questions, just read it for us.
5. At the end, choose someone to facilitate the questions for next week.

Kick-off Question: (60 second answers, facilitator goes first, go around the circle)

Who is someone you admire? Why do you admire them?

Bridge: Today's story turns the world's values system upside down. It might be challenging, but consider being willing to go deeper.

Read the Bible Story from a modern translation: Ecclesiastes 9:13-10:4

(Encourage people to stick to this story instead of jumping all over the Bible.)

✂-----

1. In verse 16, why do you think Solomon would draw a link between wisdom and one's level of wealth?
✂-----
2. It seems that wealth is a factor for wisdom to be recognized and appreciated by others. How do you make sense of this?
✂-----
3. Read 10:1 again. What are other things that might be similar to foolishness that also spoil great wisdom and honor in a person?
✂-----
4. What do you see as the characteristics of a quiet spirit?
✂-----

Sharing Questions: (50% of your study time)

- A) On a personal note, who is someone you admire who has a quiet spirit?

✂-----

Who is someone you admire for their life of wisdom?

Bridge: Today's story is about the wise and the foolish. But better yet, it gives principles that anyone can use to increase their wisdom quotient. So, give this story some consideration as we explore it.

Read the Bible Story from a modern translation: Ecclesiastes 10:5-20

(Encourage people to stick to this story instead of jumping all over the Bible.)

✂-----
3. Why do you think King Solomon included verse 20?
✂-----
4. If verse 14 is really true that “no one can predict the future,” what wisdom would Solomon give us in regard to palm readers, psychics, and horoscopes?

Sharing Questions: (50% of your study time)

Kick-off Question: (60 second answers, facilitator goes first, go around the circle)

When you have been discouraged? What gave you hope?

Bridge: Today's story will challenge us to search for hopeful meaningfulness. Can we find enjoyment in the midst of meaningfulness? Is this even possible? Some may say yes, and others may say no. But it is up to every person to decide for themselves, because everyone makes the final decision for themselves.

Read the Bible Story from a modern translation: Ecclesiastes 11:1-6

Digging Questions: (50% of your study time)

1. What principles of business does Solomon offer in this story?
✂-----
2. In this story Solomon does not use the word risk, but what kind of council or advice do you think he would give regarding risk-taking?

Now read verses 7-10.

3. Why do you think Solomon, in verse 9, says to “enjoy life” and to “remember?”
✂-----
4. Solomon uses the word meaningless approximately thirty times in the book of Ecclesiastes. Yet in these few verses there is a command in verse 9 to enjoy every minute of life. How do you reconcile these opposites?

Sharing Questions: (50% of your study time)

- A) On a personal note, if you were to take Solomon's advice in verse 10 to not worry and to keep your body healthy, what would you change this week?

If you were asked for one piece of wisdom, what would you say?

Bridge: Today's story is the last one in the book of Ecclesiastes. It is in this last story that Solomon reminds us that everything is meaningless, but he gives us his final conclusion to his search. This final conclusion is what gives a person's life purpose, meaning, and focus. So, let's take a look.

Read the Bible Story from a modern translation: Ecclesiastes 12:1-14

(Encourage people to stick to this story instead of jumping all over the Bible.)

✂-----

Digging Questions: (50% of your study time)

1. Why do you think so many people spend their best years, their young years, living for themselves and then, when they get old, they think about God?
✂-----
2. Verse 5 talks about one's "everlasting home." What is this talking about?
✂-----
3. Dig deep into this story. What do you find in this story that suggests there is something after death?

Leader's Tip: See verse 14. If death in the grave is final, what would be the reason for God to judge us?

4. Let's do a quick review of what Solomon has taught us about death. Read the following verses again: Ecclesiastes 3:21; 9:5-6, 10; 12:7. Based on these verses, what do we know about death?

Sharing Questions: (50% of your study time)

- A) On a personal note, having studied this book, how do you think Solomon would advise you to live differently?
✂-----
- B) How has your faith in God shaped your outlook on aging, death, and dying?
✂-----
- C) What is an invitation, a promise, a command, or a warning that you needed to hear today?
